

Specifications

Choose the right video editing software

Your specifications for choosing the best video editing software

Compatibility and need	Solution #1	Solution #2	Solution #3
An application available on any type of smartphone and OS iOS, Android, recent or older mobile
Possibility of producing videos, motion design, podcasts, etc. More or less diversity depending on the need
Features
Sharing and downloading Available directly in the editing software or application
Automatic subtitles and translation In all necessary languages
Access to customisable templates/scenarios Colours, font, logo overlay, modification of the template structure
Selfie shooting available
Lens stabilisation during capture
Access to royalty-free music
Possibility to trim, add and modify text and customize text style
Sound adjustment Video/music/voice-over volumes
Import of visual elements and logo overlay
Capture guidance Inspiration, centred silhouette, guidelines
Intelligent automatic assembly

Offline use
Different formats, frames and themes
Video inspirations
Collaborative work
Approval of videos Possibility of having the videos validated by other collaborators before publication
Multiple levels of access/permission to manage employees Creators, administrators, access to certain parts of the application only
Creation of project teams/groups to enable collaborative working
Legal
Delivery of certifications of image rights
Local/safe storage of projects
Support
Free trial
Dedicated account manager
Training Support by the software/application support
FAQ and help materials
Quick and easy billing management
Supports locally installed

